1. Nature of Coaching Services

QuickWins Consulting provides professional coaching services. Coaching is a collaborative, forward-focused process designed to support personal and professional development. It is not therapy, counselling, psychotherapy, or any form of mental health treatment.

If you are experiencing a mental health crisis or require psychological or psychiatric support, please seek assistance from a qualified mental health professional.

2. No Guarantees of Outcome

While we are committed to providing high-quality coaching support, we make no guarantees regarding specific outcomes, results, salary increases, promotions, or career advancements. The results of coaching depend on many factors including your engagement, effort, and individual circumstances.

Testimonials and case studies shared on our website reflect individual experiences and are not a guarantee that you will achieve the same results.

3. Professional Advice

Nothing on this website or in our coaching sessions constitutes legal, financial, medical, or psychological advice. Always seek the advice of qualified professionals for matters relating to these areas.

4. Neurodivergence

Our coaching is informed by knowledge of neurodivergent experiences and is designed to be affirming and supportive. However, we do not provide diagnostic assessments. If you suspect you may be neurodivergent and have not received a formal assessment, we encourage you to seek evaluation from a qualified professional.
